

How to Give Through Your Will and Bequest

You can make a lasting impact by designating Lifewater as a beneficiary through a bequest or beneficiary designation.

Giving Through a Bequest

Below is sample bequest language that can be used to designate Lifewater as a beneficiary.

"I hereby give to Lifewater, Inc., a California nonprofit corporation with its principal offices at Lifewater International, 75 Zaca Lane, Suite 100, San Luis Obispo, California, 93401, [named property], [the sum of $ _____], or [_____ % of the residue of my estate,] to be used for its general purposes.

If you have any questions about bequest language or if you want to make a specifically designated bequest, please contact Christine Zurbach at czurbach@lifewater.org or (805) 541-6634.

Giving Through a Beneficiary Designation

You can designate a charity as the beneficiary of your life insurance policy, your retirement assets, or a bank account. Tax-deductible gifts from these can also be made during your lifetime. If you want to designate Lifewater as a beneficiary, use the provided information:

Legal Name: Lifewater, Inc.

Address: 75 Zaca Lane, Suite 100, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

Tax ID: 95-3987142

Your deferred gifts allow future generations to be served with clean water, health, and hope. Please consult with your estate planning attorney or financial advisor on the tax implications of your gift.

Questions? Contact Us.

If you have any questions please contact us at 805.541.6634 or email Christine Zurbach, Vice President of Philanthropy, at christine@lifewater.org.

